MR. AND MISS B.H.S.

JIM BIRDSILL

JERI MacLENNAN

HOMECOMING KING AND QUEEN

JOHN BLANKLEY JEAN RUNSTROM

SENIORS

The year: 1997
Setting: Western White House in Last Chance, Colorado.
Event: Inaugural Ball for President elect Jim Birdsill.

Jim has just arrived in Air Force I piloted by Pam Dickason, head of NASA. Jim is closely followed by his new appointees as he enters the banquet room: Chief Coordinator of National Disasters and the Save the Beans Foundation - Jim Burnet; Head of the Spit and Chew Department - Chet Atwater; Head of Secret Service - Jean Runstrom; and the Chairman of the Commission to Conserve Energy - Kathy Wester.

After the President elect and his apppointees have been introduced and seated, John Bang, very loud Speaker of the House, introduces (without aid of amplification) the special guests of the evening. First on the list is John Blankley - Head of Teamster's Union for Diesel Mechanics. Next, the most valuable player for the NFL - Jon Sutton, and the Fruit Fly Specialist - Doug Benish. Lastly is Nancy Bordner - Chief Boss Moss.

For those of you who might be wondering, Mike Leonard is in the front lot wrecking (parking) cars wearing his slick Schlitz shirt. Meanwhile back inside, a most astonishing event has taken place; Sharon Fendel has entered wearing a smile and Judy Tilton is really talking.

The evenings procedures are rudely interrupted by Mary Behrens, Head Cook for the White House, verbally attacking an inebriated Bronc Thompson for belching in the Souffle'. He then staggers out the door and stumbles into Janet Campfield, Head of the Association to Literally STAMP out Cowboys. Janet, at the moment, is attempting to bar Lee and Jeri (MacLennan) Lancaster's entrance because Lee won't remove his hat. (Incidentally, Lee and Jeri are the owners and operators of the second largest ranch in the world.)

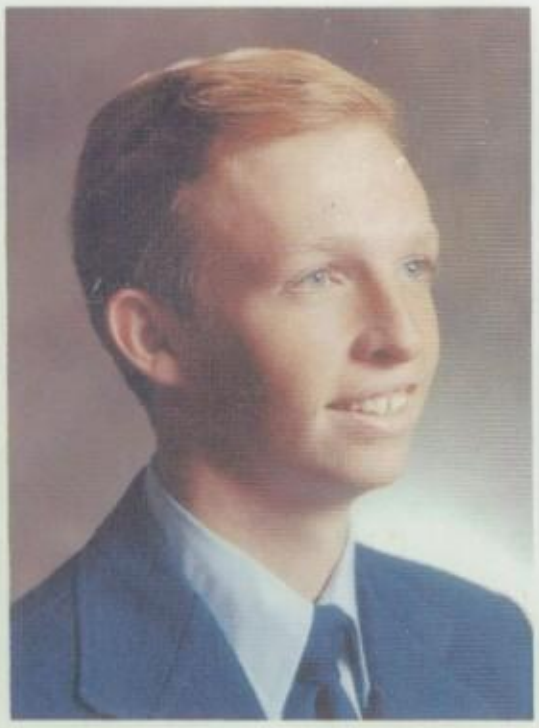
Two guests were ultimately detained, one being Jim Davis who, had a flat tire, and the other, Robert Withington whose bumper fell off his VW and high-centered his car.

As Merlyn Henry, Nation's Leading Athletic Supporter, is drawing the evening's festivities to an end, he is interrupted by Rod Russell and Mike Neville revving up their cycles outside.

During this eventuous evening, Rose Cronk, is sitting at home in Nome, Alaska, shouting blasphemies at the snowfall for falling so noisily on the ground.

GOOD LUCK SENIORS '75!

- The Junior Class of '76



I will my hat and Boots to Gary Morgan, all my athletic abilities to Bob Read, and my red hair to anyone who wants it.

AWARDS NIGHT

Recognition for a Job Well Done

DANIEL L. KERR, Superintendent

FELLOW TIGERS

The 1974-75 school year I hope has been enjoyable and profitable and I am looking forward to embarking upon another school year with you.

The Board of Education and citizens of School District 29J have made intensive efforts to provide you with a quality educational program. It is important, as holds true with any of our endeavors, the degree of satisfaction and achievement gained from school is directly proportional to the amount of work put forth. I hope you received what you wanted this past year.

I hope that all of you experienced success this 1974-75 school year.

Sincerely,

Daniel L. Kerr

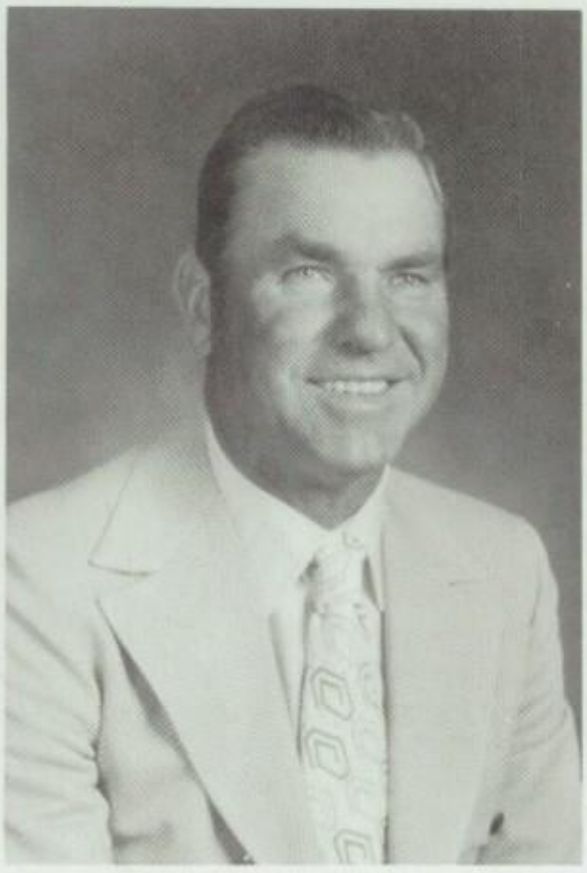
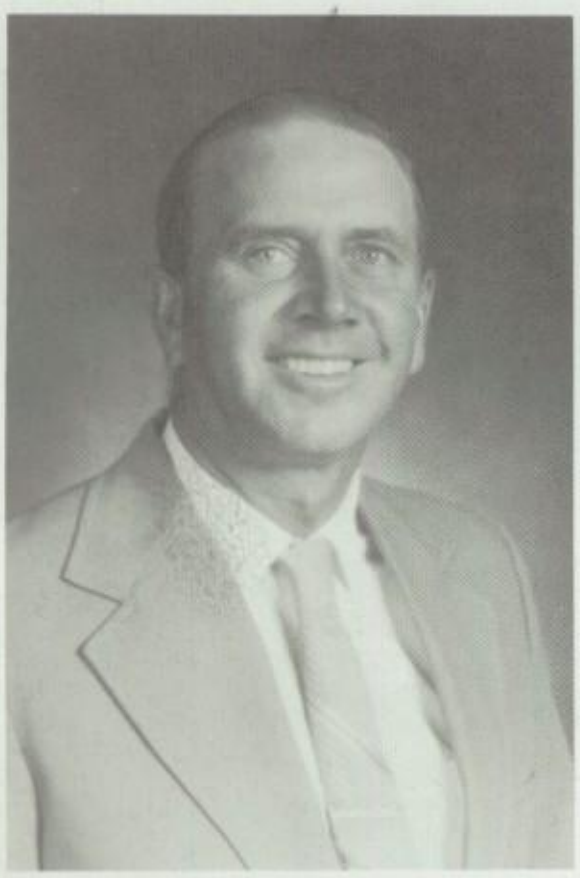
SCHOOL BOARD INITIATES MANY CHANGES IN NEW SCHOOL

DON TRUPP, Vice President



DAN KISSLER - President

HELEN CONVERSE - Secretary



LARRY TOFT - Treasurer

JIM BANG - Director

The 1974-75 school year marked many changes in the new school. The District 29J School Board adjusted very well to the changing needs of the students and faculty. Some changes made were new classes added to the curriculum, a six period day for next year, and a Senior Class trip. They also worked with the Student Council on student policies.

We would like to thank the Board for its many hours of work and its concern for quality education.

This year has been full of happiness, joy, sorrow, and rewards for me.

I have learned many things during the 1974-75 school year which will forever help me.

Learning is an eternal process which started prior to our mortal birth and will continue on after our mortal death.

Each of us should take advantage of the opportunities which have been given us to learn in this free country of ours. Many people must make great sacrifices to gain an education.

I wish each of you the fulfillment of your fondest hopes and dreams. May you be successful and find happiness in your future.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY ENJOYS FIELD DAY

Pam Dickason, Nancy Bordner, Mr. Paul Vickers, Jeri MacLennan, Mary Behrens, Jim Birdsill, Bob Read, Wade Thornburg, Mark Wolfinbarger.

The National Honor Society enjoyed a very good year. THey started the year by sponsoring an open house at the new school. Later in the year they had a field day at the Museum of Natural History where they initiated the new members. The new members were sworn in during a very enjoyable water ceremony.

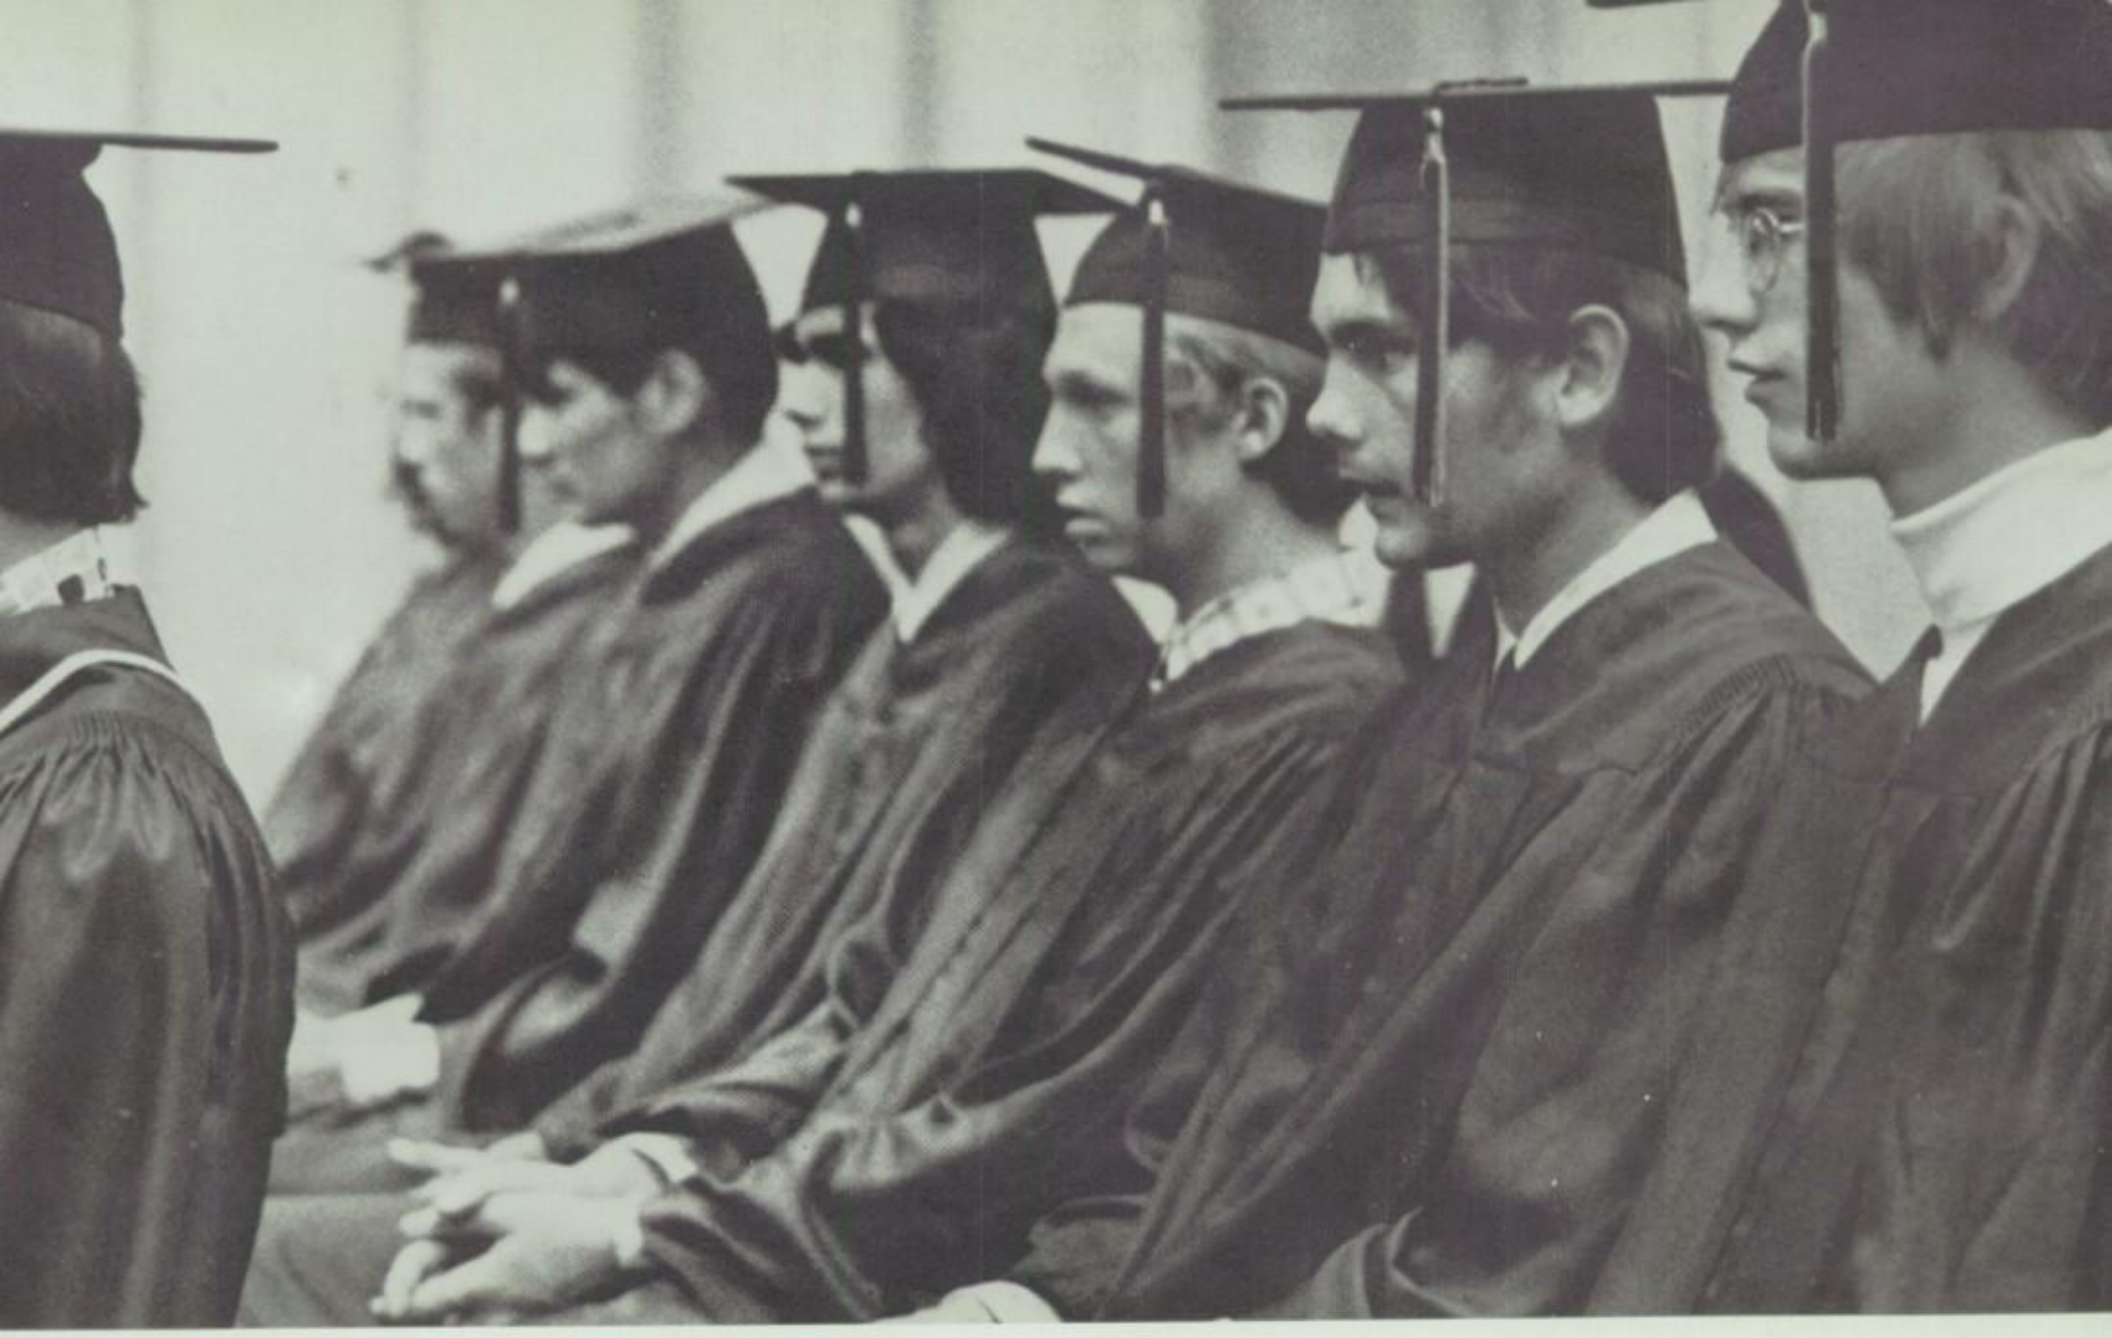
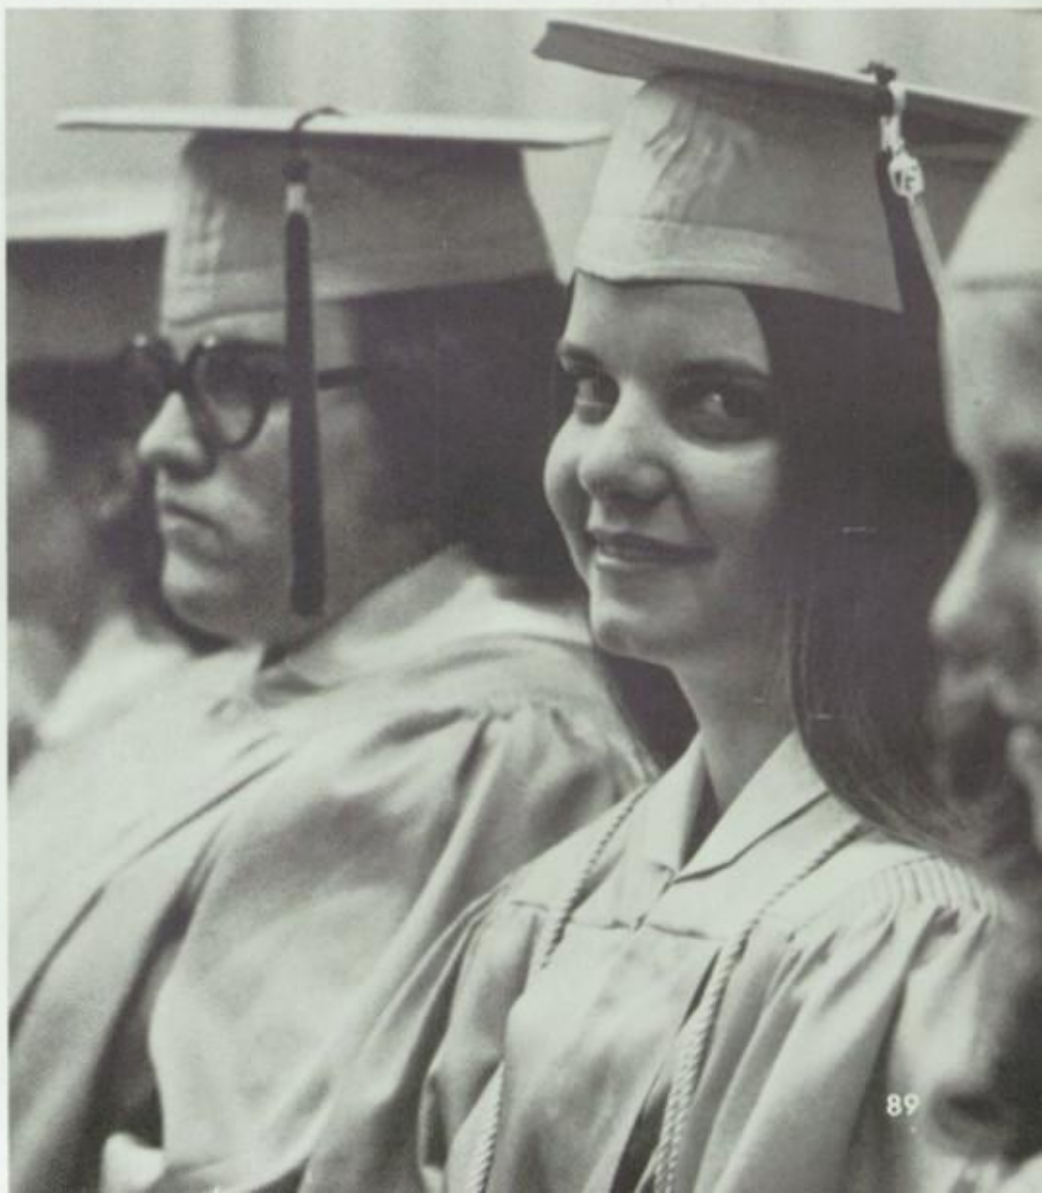
GRADUATION





FROM THE EDITOR

Working on this years annual has been a tremendous learning experience for all of us. We would like to thank those members of the staff who spent many long hours working on this book, particularly our sponsor, Mr. Keesecker and several underclassmen who gained valuable experience for next year. We hope the 1974-75 Tiger Country brings back many fond memories in future years.
